

WINTER 2004

Pomona College Magazine
Volume 41, No. 2.

Issue Home

Past Issues

Pomona College Home

Pomona College Magazine is published three times a year by Pomona College
550 N. College Ave,
Claremont, CA 91711

Online Editor: Mark Kendall

For editorial matters:
Editor: Mark Wood
Phone: (909) 621-8158
Fax: (909) 621-8203

PCM Editorial Guidelines

Contact Alumni Records for changes of address, class notes, or notice of births or deaths.

Phone: (909) 621-8635
Fax: (909) 621-8535
Email: alumni@pomona.edu

©Copyright 2004
by Pomona College

PCM | Pomona Today

Sagehen Tracks

Brightly Dark

This release from noted jazz saxophonist Tim Armacost '85 includes four original songs and three old standards, all featuring his distinctive style on the saxophone—big and soulful on tenor and warm on soprano.
Satchmo Jazz Records, 2003 • $14

Misty River: Willow

Oregon-based Misty River's latest album contains three original songs written by Chris Kokesh '96, whose distinctive fiddle, guitar and vocal stylings are a key component of the group's neo-bluegrass sound.
Misty River, 2004 • $17

When Home is Far Away

Influenced by ki ho'alu (Hawaiian slack key), classical guitar and fingerstyle, guitarist Darin Leong '99 takes his listeners on an instrumental journey to both the winters of New York and the beaches of Hawaii.
Darin Leong, 2003 • $16.94

Wrapped Up In Your Kiss

Featuring six songs by Steve Millard '80, this new CD by the Seattle jazz group Quintessence offers a wide range of original compositions, ranging from Latin jazz to torch songs, swing to ballads.
Steve Millard Music, 2004 • $14.95

Top of Page

Pomona College Magazine • 550 N. College Ave, Claremont, CA 91711 • Contact us for editorial matters